they too must live!

You have the power to save human life...
not by fighting, not by dying... but by giving.

That power is your money
when you give it to the War Chest.

On the battle fronts, your War Chest gift
gives new life to war-weary men.
A taste of home life to a man far from home.

On the home front, your contribution buys
a secure life for the helpless old.
The right life for young delinquents. A healthy life
for little children
with no other means of support.

To our suffering allies,
the War Chest means life instead of starvation.
Life for those who are fighting with their own hands
to make your world a better one.

Yes, life of many kinds is yours to give.
Don't turn from those who turn toward you...
give generously to your War Chest.
